

Roots & Shoots

with present

APPLE DAY

and

October Plenty

a grand joint festival:

Heritage Apple exhibition: 100 varieties from the national collection, Kent; from Wales and from Somerset; Evolution and genetics of apples. Hand-pressing juice. (Exhibition apples sold from 3.00 pm)

Heritage Apple tree sales and growing information from Andy Howard, Heritage Fruit Tree Company.

The Grand Procession with the Lions part company, the Corn Queene and the Berry Man: begins with The Tempest masque and the Hobby Horse challenge, then follow us down to Roots and Shoots where:

the Corn Queene presides over apple celebrations, performances, dancing, music, corn dolly making, face-painting, conkers with the Berry Man,

the Story Orchard (in the orchard!) - with Pat Ryan, renowned storyteller

Morris dancing and THE FABULARIUM FABLES

Heritage seeds and plants with Pennard Plants; (and very eccentric sheep!) Lambeth Horticultural Society.

Food, London Honey, craft and gift stalls.

Roots and Shoots Kitchen Cafe, BBQ and Shop.

plus GRUMBUCKET
the musical dragon

Sunday 20th October

Roots and Shoots gates open 11.30 a.m.

Procession starts 12 noon at Imperial War Museum.

Procession free; Entrance to Roots and Shoots Apple Day: adults £2 with Souvenir Programme, children free.

Roots and Shoots, Walnut Tree Walk, Lambeth, SE11.

Side entrance off Fitzalan Street. Tel. 020 7587 1131.

www.rootsandshoots.org.uk www.thelionspart.co.uk

Proceeds go to the charitable work of Roots and Shoots & the Lions part.

